Our Mission

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to keep the performing arts alive and within reach of everyone in our community.

Our Values

We believe that all young people should have the opportunity to experience the theatre arts — that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We teach the process of theatre, helping kids develop self-esteem and communication skills through creativity and teamwork.

Director's Notes

When your boss comes to you and asks if it's ok to accept more students into camp after you've been told that it's full, you know things are going well. I believe that this is the third consecutive summer that our numbers have exceeded our expectations. We are so fortunate to have so many talented and excited youngsters interested in spending their precious summer vacations with us. Thanks, parents, for entrusting us with your wonderful children.

Each camp presents itself with unique challenges. I have to admit that this camp is an exception! The toughest decision that Ms. K and I have to make is casting the show during the first few days of camp. This summer, OCPA has been blessed with a terrific space to perform in. I think I am as excited for our actors to perform in North High's Little Theatre as they are. Thanks to the Medford School District 549C for letting us in.

I want to thank our set designer, Doug Ham, for his creative and colorful contributions to No Strings. Look for his artistry during our next camp of Oliver Twist. Also, the Dewar clan not only helps run this organization but has done so much with props and costumes for this show. Tori even plays in the orchestra pit! Thank you Deb, 'Stina and Tori.

Stage Manager Laura continues to streamline and be a calming influence during these summers. I have not worked with a better SM. Without her I would perish.

Enjoy the show, your children, and thanks for supporting the arts.

Cheers!

Andrew Brock
