OCPA Board of Directors

Dennis Foster, President
Laura Delgado, Treasurer
Alissa Larson, Secretary
Andrea Brock
Tenaya Jacobson
Jeff Tabler, Artistic Director

Founded in 1998, Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts was founded by two local high school teachers felt there was a need to offer kids theatre experiences beyond what was found in the public schools, where arts were being curtailed or eliminated. The two brought together a number of artists and teachers to bring the arts alive in the lives of students.

Our Mission

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to keep the performing arts alive and within reach of everyone in our community.

Our Values

We believe that all young people should have the opportunity to experience the theatre arts — that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We teach the process of theatre, helping kids develop self-esteem and communication skills through creativity and teamwork.

Be a part of OCPA!

We watch all this fabulous talent up on stage today, but we know where it really comes from:

YOU!

Kids can't be this great without fantastic people supporting them behind the scenes. It takes a lot of dedication and effort to keep healthy, happy, active kids going and fully engaged.

Our OCPA board of directors is small but mighty, and we have a lot of fun doing a lot of work. We donate our time and our resources to help make these performance opportunities possible.

But we need your help!

Do you have light work skills that could help us keep the magic going? We are looking for some specific skills that could help OCPA take that next step into a fully-staffed year-round conservatory. If you are someone with a skill that you'd like to share for just a few hours each month, please stop by the lobby or give us a call. We are always looking for like-minded people who want to contribute to OCPA's success. Find out how much fun you can have helping make someone's dreams come true!

Directors' Notes

I have always loved Shakespeare. His use of colorful, vibrant and poignant words and the wide range of characters is unique compared to other styles of theatre. Working on this text, with these actors, has been a "midsummer dream." Each individual has brought their own heart and personality to the process. We hope you enjoy the show!

Jessica Blaszk

Musical Director's Notes

Many thanks to each and every one of you for coming and supporting this amazing organization and the students who have worked so hard to produce a wonderful show. OCPA is something special and I am so honored to be a part of it.

This is my first production with OCPA. In fact, it's the first big thing I have done since moving to Medford- I started working on this production the day after I moved down here! The three weeks I have spent with these students have been exceptional- it never ceases to amaze me what young minds can come up with when given a little freedom and a lot of encouragement.

Parents and guardians, thank you for sharing your children with us for this production. Each of them has provided such wonderful insight, creativity, and work ethic into this performance, and they are the reason this show is what it is. It has been such a privilege to watch each student come out of their shell and find (or continue to find) their voice as an actor and a human being. I think my favorite thing about OCPA and this camp is that it has provided young people with the opportunity to take risks and try new things without fear of rejection. I have so loved watching campers experiment with their movements, inflections, and interpretations, and I think you'll see once the show starts just how much each of them is bringing to the table.

This show has definitely proven to be a bit of a musical challenge. I am so proud of the students for, on top of learning lots of lines and complex choreography, have put forth such incredible effort to make beautiful music. Each song tells a different story, and they have worked hard to convey those stories through the way they sing. A special thank you to my tenors and basses- I know I picked on you a lot, but those harmonies make it all worth it!

Many thanks to Laura, Jessica, Alissa, and Jeff, for welcoming me to OCPA and this community with open arms. You have each worked tirelessly to make sure every single detail is in place, and without you this camp and this show wouldn't be possible.

Now, please enjoy this (slightly unconventional) rendition of A Midsummer Night's Dream! ~Danika
