Our Mission

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to keep the performing arts alive and within reach of everyone in our community.

Our Values

We believe that all young people should have the opportunity to experience the theatre arts — that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We teach the process of theatre, helping kids develop self-esteem and communication skills through creativity and teamwork.

Directors' Notes

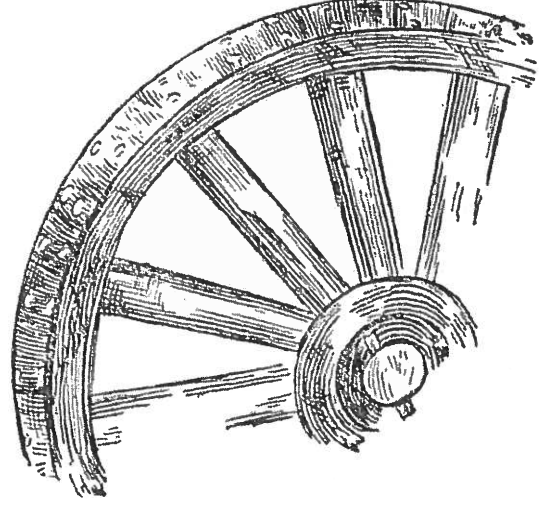

When I first perused the script for “Go West” I got the impression that this show would be similar to those we have done. Boy was I wrong!

With 35 campers, there was enough named parts for each camper. With the exception of one number, every single character is on the stage for the entire show. This means that everyone is working and less downtime during rehearsal. “Go West” is what I call an “ensemble” work.

I’ve truly enjoyed working with the all students for the past three weeks. I’ve had to be organized and know what every camper is doing nearly ever second. With several veteran campers leading the way, I am delighted to see so many newcomers. This encourages me that OCPA will continue to thrive!

Enjoy the talent and thanks for supporting Arts in our community.

From the Musical Director

The very first time I heard these students sing I did a little happy dance. I knew I had strong singers to work with. I then added three songs to the show in order to showcase these talents. This has put a little bit of pressure on students and adults alike in order to learn all of the material, but I think when you hear their voices, you'll agree that the extra work has been worth it.

It's an honor and a privilege to work with these students, as well as with the staff; Kaitlyn, Christina, Tori, Mrs. Brock, and Mr. Brock make a great team. Mr. Brock is one of the funniest people I know and he shows that gift in his stage directions. I hope you enjoy this show as much as I have.
