But we need your help!

Yes, it takes a village, and with an entire village, many hands make light work. Do you have light work skills that could help us keep the magic going? We are looking for some specific skills that could help OCPA take that next step into a fully-staffed year-round conservatory.

Be a part of OCPA!

We watch all this fabulous talent up on stage today, but we know where it really comes from:

YOU!

Kids can't be this great without some pretty fantastic people supporting them behind the scenes. It takes a lot of dedication and effort to keep healthy, happy, active kids going and fully engaged. We know it takes a village.

Our OCPA board of directors' village is small but mighty, and we have a lot of fun doing a lot of work. We donate our time and our resources to help make these performance opportunities possible. And even though our own children have grown too old for these camps, we can't seem to stop wanting to create more magic year after year.

Directors' Notes

I remember doing various theatre camps as a young girl and each one still holds a place in my heart. Broadway Beat is a show that celebrates the history of musicals, the exciting electricity of New York City, and most importantly, the magic of theatre as a whole.

During the past three weeks, it has been an honor to sing and dance with these 34 amazing children. Each one of them has brought their own flare to the rehearsals, and it's an inspiration to actively participate in their creativity and imagination.

Thank you for supporting this talented group in doing what they love. OCPA is an exciting way to bring theatre to all ages of youth and I've relished every moment. Enjoy the show!

~Jessica Blaszak

OCPA Board of Directors

Miriam Liberatore, President

Deb Dewar, Vice-President, Treasurer

Carrie Gamache, Secretary

Laura Delgado

Jeff Tabler, Artistic Director

Founded in 1998, Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts was founded by two local high school teachers felt there was a need to offer kids theatre experiences beyond what was found in the public schools, where arts were being curtailed or eliminated. The two brought together a number of artists and teachers to bring the arts alive in the lives of students.

Our Mission

The mission of the Oregon Conservatory of Performing Arts is to keep the performing arts alive and within reach of everyone in our community.

Our Values

We believe that all young people should have the opportunity to experience the theatre arts — that a complete education involves knowledge of the arts and participation in them. We teach the process of theatre, helping kids develop self-esteem and communication skills through creativity and teamwork.
